1st. David Alexander Lyle born in Fairfield County Jan. 21, 1845. Appointed to U.S. Military Academy at West Point in Oct. 1865 and graduated in June 1869. As an officer in the Army of the United States Mr. Lyle had an extensive experience of over 42 years. In 1877 he designed the Lyle Life Saving Gun, which was adopted by the U.S. Life Saving Service and used by that service for many years. In 1883-84, he was a student at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, graduating therefrom in 1884. He rose to the rank of Colonel in the Ordnance Dept. of the Army in 1907, and retired with that rank in 1909.

He married first Lottie Kirkland Cobb on Sept. 7, 1875. To this union two children were born: David Alexander Lyle, Jr. died in infancy, and Anna Lyle born March 3, 1879. Mrs. Lyle died March 1, 1884 and Mr. Lyle was married second to Alice Veronica Darr April 2, 1894. Col. Lyle lived during his retirement years at St. Davids, Penna. and his death occurred there on October 10, 1937 in the 93rd year of his age.

2nd. Aaron Thomas Lyle born in Fairfield County Aug. 16, 1847. He never married; died at Pleasantville, Ohio on March 6, 1929. Buried at Methodist Protestant Cemetery, New Salem, Ohio. Aaron T. Lyle attended the Lyle Reunion held at the Lyle Home near Hickory on June 18, 1884, he being the only representative of his Branch of the Family to attend.
