Evans, b- 19 Mar. 1849, d- 28 Nov. 1916 Ravanna Cem., MO; m-3 Nora _____. He went back to Pennsylvania on a visit; there he met his third wife. She came back to Missouri to live with him, but stayed only a year as she became homesick; also, there was no Catholic Church nearby and she was a Catholic. He divided up his property with her; she went back to Pennsylvania to live.

Upon the death of his first wife, Hezekiah wrote the following letter to his grandson, Clell Dodson; letter has original spelling and punctuation:

Wel Clell I wil now try and write a few Lines to you to Let you Know that Grandma is gone she Died March the 26 after suffering very much all winter ever since October her sickness was stomach trouble in the first Place and Poor circulation of the heart and Kidney caused Dropsy and 4 weeks Before she died all But one Day she had a stroke of Parralisis and her whole Right Side was Parralised and she never could talk anymore. She gained consiouness in about 4 days after She had the stroke and would nod her head when we would ask her anything and eat a little just enough to Keep her alive til the Last week she Lived she did not eat hardly anything and sank fast--til death Relieved her of her suffering she would often say that nobody Knowed what She had to suffer

oh Clell it seems that this earth has Lost all its charms to me
But our Loss is her gain for She said more than most that She was Ready to go if it was the Lords will let us then try and Live so we can meet her again when done with this life this Life is too short to trifel away for if we Loose heaven we loose all and this life would Be an entire failure it would Be Better if we had never Been Born I would have wrote to you Sooner But I have Been so torn up that I could hardly think of any thing: wel Clell your Dear mother has no tomb stones at her grave could you not get your father to help to get tomb stones and you could help some I am at a great Deal of expense now as my doctor Bill is high mother's casket was $60 dollars and I want to get her a monument as soon as I can: wel we have had very nice weather here all through March and up to this time we had a good rain Last monday and tuesday and the grass and oats are growing fast the cherries and apple trees are in full bloom and every thing looks nice write as soon as you get this and let me Know how you are getting along from your grandfather,

H. Klingensmith April the 10 1910

In 1989 Lelia Klingensmith wrote the following about her Grandpa Klingensmith. He was the only grandparent she knew as all of the others had died before she was born:

Grandpa stayed with his children after Grandma died. I remember him staying at our home. I was a little girl and enjoyed entertaining him. Just one thing I hated was that when we went anywhere in the Model T Ford, I had to sit on his lap as that made seven of us in the car. I think he enjoyed holding me, but I thought it made me look so little and I always wanted to be a big girl and not a baby. . . I remember his last wife. . . He married her in Pennsylvania as he got acquainted with her visiting relatives there. She. . . had always lived in the city so it was quite a change for her. He didn't drive a car and they had to go in a buggy with a team. . . She got so homesick that she didn't stay only about two years. He had a sale and divided up with her and she went back home. I will never forget when he died. I was eight years old. . . That was the first and only time I ever saw a hearse pulled by horses.

- 1). CLELL L. DODSON, b- 12 July 1885 Mercer Co., d- 14 Feb. 1970 Ashland, KS; m- 20 Oct. 1908 Mary Meldoma Daniels, d/o Isaiah Daniels & Nancy Elizabeth Tindal, b- Clay Center, IN, d- 26 July 1973 at age of 90 yrs. Gerry Nicholson wrote of her grandparents:

What do three "stair-step" girls do for entertainment?
. . . going with our grandparents to pick sand plums and taking a picnic lunch along, riding in the buckboard while our grandparents picked up cow chips to burn in the stove. . . Grandma. . . did not drive, objected to electric lights and thought women should not vote. We wanted to wear jeans and she strongly objected to "ladies" wearing long trousers. She even put on a pair of grandpa's overalls, strode in and said, "now, do you girls want to look like this?". . . Grandpa. . . was always referring to us as "boys." . . Grandpa was also our best ally when it came to homework. . . He only had a 5th grade education. Grandma loved poetry and could recite many poems from beginning to end. . . On "Black Sunday" when all of Ashland and surrounding communities were filled with the black clouds of dust so that you could not even see your hand before you, we were at Aunt Lizzie Sherrid's house in Ashland for dinner. After we got our bearings, we drove to our red house 6 miles west of Ashland where grandma for several days kept wet sheets hanging in doorways and over the windows. . . One thing that we never realized at the time, but we were poor financially. My grandfather only made $28.00 a month working on the WPA so it took a lot of management by both my grandparents to make ends meet. . . We just knew we were well loved.

They rode the ferry across the Missouri River. They rented land from Indians near Ponca City at Bliss--post office and store at Bliss, but had a dry year so moved northeast to Gate, Okla. and homesteaded on 160 acres & lived there until Grandpa's death in July, 1916.

My parents. . . came to Okla. in 1901, but I do not know the exact date. . . they came by train as far as Weatherford, Okla. They came with my Grandpa and Grandma Duree. My Grandpa brought some horses and mules by train and some of the men rode in the freight car with the horses and mules. They all lived in a half dugout south of here (Elk City, OK) and then Grandpa homesteaded on a place near where they lived in the half dugout. Some of my brothers and sisters were born while living in the half dugout. . .
