- A. JACOB SMAIL was born in 1811 probably in Venango County. According to the above-mentioned book, published in 1983, he "was born out of wedlock. . . was brought by his mother from Penna to Ohio 'by way of Elyria.'" and that his father probably was _____ Smith. Jacob's first marriage, to Sarah Grimm, was performed by a David Smale, a justice of the peace in Columbiana County, Ohio, on 26 October 1837. In April of 1848 he traded some land he owned in Wyandot County, for 108 acres in the Paint Valley area. At this time he lived in Columbiana County. In 1857 he sold that farm and bought 180 acres near Brinkhaven, in Holmes County, also in Ohio. In 1865 he and his two older sons made a trip to Indiana to buy land for the boys. When they returned, they found that Sarah had died, on 30 July 1865, and had already been buried. She was forty-four years of age according to her tombstone in the Brinkhaven Cemetery; she was born in Ohio on 9 February 1821. On 10 April 1870 in Allen County, Indiana, Jacob married Barbara Moore. Land transactions in August of that year show him living in Allen County; he died later on that year. His place of burial is not known.
